

Ellen Bernstein SB 46

In today's world, the resolution of this question should be a no-brainer.

I am concerned not only about high school students and teachers exposed to toxic chemicals, but also about young members of the groundskeeping staff, and their unborn children.